Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dr. Neal A. Sher has dedicated his expertise and a portion of his practice to the men and women of the South Dakota Army National Guard; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Dr. Sher has performed over 40 photorefractive keratectomy eye surgeries for soldiers in the South Dakota Army National Guard, saving them over $200,000; and,

Whereas, His dedication and commitment to the men and women of the Armed Forces of this country have made him a cornerstone; and,

Whereas, Dr. Sher continues to give of himself, always striving to achieve the highest possible standard; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Dr. Neal A. Sher for his outstanding and dedicated service to this state and country and for performing photorefractive keratectomy eye surgeries for soldiers in the South Dakota Army National Guard:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 8, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his continued great support for the men and women in uniform and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
